

This proof of the sum of squares formula

$$\sum_{i=1}^n i^2 = \frac{n(n+1)(2n+1)}{6}$$

is adapted from "SOLUTION 1" on page A36 in the back of Stewart's Calculus: Early Transcendentals (6th Edition).

I have yet to type up this proof.