

SLATE STATEMENT FOR SUNY FREDONIA

In May 2007, New York State passed the Student Lending, Accountability, Transparency and Enforcement (SLATE) Act. The New York State Education Department is responsible for promulgating the necessary rules and regulations to implement the SLATE Act. While final regulations have not been issued, Chase does have reasonable practices in place to ensure compliance with the Act. If SLATE regulations are issued, Chase will fully comply with the applicable regulatory requirements.
