

Fall 2009 International Brown Bag Luncheons

Learn about international opportunities as last year's Fulbright recipients and international scholars share their experiences with you. All presentations will take place 12-12:50 in Fenton Hall English Reading room (Fenton 127). Drinks provided.

1. Monday, October 19 – Kate Mahoney, Department of Language, Learning, and Leadership

“Reclaiming Welsh: Bilingual Education in Wales”

Dr. Mahoney, her mother, and College of Education students travelled to Swansea, Wales in May as part of the 20-year-old College of Education exchange program that brings SUNY Fredonia students into Welsh classrooms.

2. Monday, November 16 –Iclal Vanwesenbeeck, Eric Gray, John Gradel, Amanda McCoy, Ashley Zengerski

“Turkey: East meets West”

Come learn about the exciting adventure SUNY Fredonia students took to Turkey to learn about the rich culture where two continents come together. Come explore with us the cities of Istanbul and Izmir. See how this unique culture bridges the west and the east, Europe and Asia; Greco-Roman and the Ottoman mosques and churches.

Note: There will be four additional brown bag luncheons scheduled for Spring 10
