

The Write-Now Hour

During Fall Semester 2009, the Write-Now Hour will be focused on getting the “skinny” on writing grant applications (big and small). We will share grant writing “secrets,” and candidly discuss both barriers and success strategies.

The Write Now Hour goals:

- ✓ To be a collegial, non-competitive atmosphere where faculty and staff can share their written work and receive feedback from peers;
- ✓ Provide support, encouragement, and motivation in order foster a scholarly community.

All gatherings are from 3:00 pm to 4:00pm
in
Reed Library 4th Floor
Tower Lounge

September 17
October 22
December 3

You need not come to every session - attend
only when you can!
