Please review the application and nomination process for more information on how to get accepted into Fredonia's Leadership Development Program!

LEADERSHIP AT FREDONIA

Experienced Leadership Development for Upperclassmen

Juniors and Seniors who are interested in pursuing a leadership class can enroll in Experienced Leadership Development. This leadership class introduces the student to tasks, strategies and skills of effective leadership. Course activities will move the student from theory to the practical processes of leadership through the use of experiential learning, oral expression, and effective teamwork.

Pre-Requisite: Must be an upperclassman that is currently in, or has held, a leadership position

Application and Nomination Process

Students who wish to apply for acceptance in the Leadership Development Program must be nominated. Please fill out an application for consideration in this competitive program.

Students who successfully complete the LEAD101 seminar are eligible to enroll in the 3 credit leadership course LEAD201 and pursue the leadership minor.

The Leadership Minor

The minor in Leadership Studies is an interdisciplinary program created with substantial student input. It requires 21 credit hours of coursework and practicum credit. The program is designed to provide intensive study of leadership, complimented by co-curricular activities provided through Student Affairs.

Goals of the Minor

- To introduce leadership as a recognized and well-documented set of concepts gleaned from designated texts that enhance leadership study
- To provide the opportunity for an internship experience
- To allow students to use this minor to compliment a variety of major programs

Requirements for the Minor

- Undergraduate student enrolled at Fredonia
- Maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.5
- Application, consultation, and approval with current Academic Advisor

Coursework focuses on five basic components: theory of leadership development; leadership in a changing world; communication skills (oral and written); techniques for working with groups and organizations; and presentation skills. The minor includes a required internship, scheduled in consultation with the program coordinator.
