

Anne Bernstein Memorial Fund

$300.00 in the form of direct pay.

The scholarship is awarded to an outstanding graduating female majoring in broadcast journalism.

Criteria for consideration include grades, participation in college activities, and commitment to women's issues.

Specific application requirements:

1. Submit a 200-250 word essay that summarizes your commitment to excellence in broadcast journalism as well as your involvement in campus activities and commitment to women's issues.

Your essay should also demonstrate top-quality writing skills.

2. Applicants should submit a resume that accounts for all experiences that have contributed to achieving “academic excellence” in broadcast journalism and women’s issues along with demonstrating superior writing skills.
