

Chilberg Applied Communication Award

$500.00 in the form of tuition remission.

Named for professor emeritus Dr. Joseph Chilberg, this scholarship is awarded to a communication major that has shown an exemplary commitment to communication service. The recipient's service should lead to the betterment of the campus and community by providing information/knowledge that leads to said betterment. The recipient must be in good academic standing (have a 3.0 or higher) and be returning to SUNY Fredonia for the 2021-2022 academic year.

Specific application requirements:

1. Submit a 200-250 word essay that summarizes how you have shown an exemplary commitment to community service during your time at Fredonia. The essay should specify how the applicant's service has led to the betterment of the Fredonia campus and community.
2. Submit a resume that accounts for all volunteer work that has led to be the betterment of the Fredonia campus and community.