

Kathleen McDonough Communication Scholarship

$500.00 in the form of tuition remission.

Recipient must be an enrolled full time as a junior or senior. Student must be a video production major and in good standing (3.0 GPA or higher). Since Kathleen's passion was documentary film, preference will be given to students showing interest in documentary work.

Specific application requirements:

1. Submit a 200-250 word essay that summarizes how you have demonstrated a commitment to academic excellence and your interests in documentary film projects. Your essay should also describe your commitment to experiential learning in the area of video production.
2. Applicants should submit a resume that accounts for all experiences that have contributed to achieving "academic excellence" and video production skills, with specific emphasis on documentary filmmaking skills.