

Mike Igoe, J.D.

Assistant Professor of Communication

- Attorney admitted to the New York State Bar
- Award-winning former TV news reporter for 30 years
- Taught international journalism for three years in China
- Lectured in Hong Kong and Turkey
- Author of multiple books

Constitution Day Lecture
Monday, September 17
2:00-3:00 p.m.

In the Garden at Reed Library

"WHY THE U.S. CONSTITUTION MATTERS IN OUR EVERYDAY LIVES"

Light refreshments will be served.

Sponsored by: Fredonia American Democracy Project and the Division of Advancement,
Engagement, and Economic Development

