

FTI Student Business Competition

The Fredonia Technology Incubator welcomes you to the third annual Student Business Competition. The competition is designed to help students and their teams develop entrepreneurial skills and business ideas!

Important Dates:

March 6th

Effective Pitch Presentation Workshop

TBA

Business Model Canvas Workshop

Before
Finals

Practice your Pitch with Sue McNamara and/or FTI Staff

March 2019

Applications DUE

Early
March 2019

Finalists Announced

April 2019

Final Pitch to Judges

May 2019/
Fall 2019

Move into Office

Enter the competition by completing an online application which includes contact information and nine additional questions based off the business model canvas to summarize your business idea.

Final pitch - Finalists give their business pitch before selected judges.

Winners receive a Paid Entrepreneurial Internship $1,200, office space, business mentor and full services provided by the Incubator including access to workshops, business formation assistance, legal & accounting consultations, access to student interns, paths to funding and networking opportunities.

Apply at: <http://home.fredonia.edu/incubator/competition>

