As I shared with the campus last fall, the Fredonia College Foundation and I established the Bicentennial Fund. Its purpose is to increase the capacity of the university in attracting and retaining students, especially first-generation students and students from financially challenged backgrounds. I will be discussing the fund in detail during the Investiture next month. However, we have a special, time-sensitive opportunity to build up the fund this week through the generosity of an anonymous donation.

We have been given two tickets to the Buffalo Bills pre-season game this Saturday at 1 p.m. at Highmark Stadium against the Denver Broncos. Great seats – 20th row from the field, two seats together one on the aisle! So, here is the opportunity for fans of our Buffalo Bills. Anyone at SUNY Fredonia who gives a minimum of $50 to the fund this week will be eligible to win the tickets. The deadline to submit your donation for this special incentive is Thursday at 6 p.m. At that time, we will draw a winner from everyone who has made at least a $50 donation. So, if you would like to be a part of this special incentive for the Bicentennial Fund, you can make your donation to the Bicentennial Fund here.

Go Bills!

Very truly yours,

Dr. K
