

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS AND PRIVACY ACT (FERPA) Information Disclosure Consent

Student's Legal Name (print): _____ FID: _____

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a Federal Law that protects the privacy of student education records. Schools may disclose, without consent, "directory" information such as a student's name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, honors and awards, and dates of attendance. If students do not wish for directory information to be released, Fredonia's request for non-release of directory information is available at: <http://students.fredonia.edu/studentaffairs>

Schools must have written permission from the student in order to release non-directory information (such as academic or financial information) from a student's record. However, FERPA allows schools to disclose records without consent to certain parties under certain conditions. More information about FERPA and Fredonia is available at: <http://students.fredonia.edu/studentaffairs>

By signing this document, I am giving or revoking consent that Fredonia officials may discuss the contents of my academic record (including courses, grades, and degree progress) and/or financial record (including student account information and financial aid) with the following parties. I understand that I may revoke consent at any time by submitting a revised form. Additional individuals can be identified by submitting additional forms.
