Rachel Archambault, MA CCC-SLP is an SLP Program Specialist for Broward County Public Schools. After experiencing a traumatic event at her workplace on February 14 2018, she began to look for ways to help students and herself deal with trauma. She discovered trauma-informed care and has been presenting nationally to SLP's and other service providers on how TIC can be used in their setting. She runs the Instagram account, @PTSD.SLP which discusses TIC from a speech lens. She received her Bachelor and Master of Arts degrees from University of Central Florida. She was named an ASHA Innovator in March of 2023.
