

Fredonia I-Team

The "I team" represents International and Intercultural student and academic support staff, and is a communication and collaboration structure that brings together offices in Academic Affairs and the Division of Enrollment and Student Services to support each other in promoting comprehensive internationalization and intercultural student services on campus. Areas include the Office of International Education, Intercultural Center, Enrollment Services, Office of Graduate Studies, and EC English.

I-Team Organizational Structures

