The 2022 Financial Aid Directory was developed to aid Native students in pursuing a college education. The directory provides summarized information for each funding source.

THE DIRECTORY HAS THREE SECTIONS, AS FOLLOW:

Local and Regional - aboriginal and existing Haudenosaunee or Six Nations territories and the northeastern U.S.
National - the United States
Appendix - helpful contacts and information

Refer to the Appendix to best search for additional funding sources available in your area of study, from employers, groups and organizations, as well as internships that may lead to scholarship eligibility. For Natives who are not of one of the Six Nations, identify the local and regional sources available with your affiliated Nation, Tribe, or Band.

The directory summaries are not all-inclusive. Ask the Administrator contact if additional information is needed for a complete application. Students must request applications directly from the Administrator of the grant/scholarship.

The Native American SUNY: Western Consortium office does not provide or obtain applications.

Students should also seek and apply for scholarships that target underrepresented or minority students.

The Native American SUNY: Western Consortium is supported by the State University of New York (SUNY) to provide assistance to students in Haudenosaunee or Six Nations communities in western and central New York State. Our office is located on the Fredonia State University at New York campus. Please refer to www.fredonia.edu/na for continuing Financial Aid updates throughout the year.

We welcome your inquiries, comments and suggestions.

The Graduate Diversity Fellowship Program is a SUNY-wide initiative that offers fellowships to students who have been admitted to graduate or professional study. This program is intended to assist in the recruitment, enrollment and retention of students in doctoral and master’s level programs who can demonstrate that they contribute to the diversity of the student body, especially those who can show that they have overcome a disadvantage or other impediment to success in higher education.

Students who are U.S. citizens or permanent residents, and must contribute to the diversity of the graduate program to which they have been admitted. Economic or other disadvantage may be a basis for assessing a student's contribution to enhancing diversity. Membership in a racial/ethnic group that has historically been underrepresented in the graduate or professional program may serve as a plus factor in awarding scholarships. Consideration to students who are of a race or ethnicity that is underrepresented in its graduate and professional programs but may not make awards solely on that basis.

Purpose
To provide a modest stipend to support students engaged in furthering their studies. This is especially geared toward students pursuing college and/or graduate studies in any course of study.

Eligibility
Any age student, but geared toward college students or beyond.

General Information
The IAC is a small, volunteer committee with limited resources that meets three times a year to consider stipend applications: early April, late July, mid November. Preference will be given to first-time applicants; those not receiving stipends due to funding limitations will be considered at the following meeting.

Awards
$450 or less; depends upon availability of funds - typically $200-250.

Deadlines
Open-Check website for deadlines and updates

Required Documentation
Complete Application Form; if possible, Documentation of Tribal Enrollment; Name of Academic Advisor to contact for further information; Transcripts and Recommendations are helpful, but not required. We appreciate receiving a letter from the applicant sharing some information about personal goals and telling us how the stipend funds would be used.
The Seneca Diabetes Foundation has established the Barry and Deanna Snyder, Sr. Chairman’s Scholarship to assist a Seneca Nation student pursuing a college or university degree in the health or social services professions. It is the hope of the Seneca Diabetes Foundation that the student receiving this scholarship will use his or her education and training to benefit the Seneca people, especially in regards to the fight against diabetes, which affects approximately 50 percent of the population.

Eligibility

Enrolled SNI member pursuing a college or university degree in health or social services professions.

General Information

Awarding the Chairman’s Scholarship will be based primarily on the student’s financial need, but also on involvement in community and cultural activities, as well as personal assets such as fortitude, leadership, integrity and a focus on improving the quality of life for the Seneca people. Applicants for this scholarship must have a minimum 3.0 GPA; and maintain that average for the second year in order to be able to receive funding for the second year.

Awards

The Barry and Deanna Snyder, Sr. Scholarship for $10,000 over the course of two years will be awarded to a Seneca student who embodies those qualities.
