The 2014 Financial Aid Directory was developed to aid Native students in pursuing a college education. The directory provides summarized information for each funding source.

THE DIRECTORY HAS THREE SECTIONS, AS FOLLOW:

- Local and Regional
  - aboriginal and existing Haudenosaunee or Six Nations territories and the northeastern U.S.

- National
  - the United States

-  Appendix
  - helpful contacts and information

Refer to the Appendix to best search for additional funding sources available in your area of study, from employers, groups and organizations, as well as internships that may lead to scholarship eligibility. For Natives who are not of one of the Six Nations, identify the local and regional sources available with your affiliated Nation, Tribe, or Band.

The directory summaries are not all-inclusive. Ask the Administrator contact if additional information is needed for a complete application. Students must request applications directly from the Administrator of the grant/scholarship.

The Native American SUNY: Western Consortium office does not provide or obtain applications.

Students should also seek and apply for scholarships that target underrepresented or minority students.

The Native American SUNY: Western Consortium is supported by the State University of New York (SUNY) to provide assistance to students in Haudenosaunee or Six Nations communities in western and central New York State. Our office is located on the SUNY Fredonia campus. Please refer to www.fredonia.edu/na for continuing Financial Aid updates throughout the year.

We welcome your inquiries, comments and suggestions.

phone: 607.272.1618
e-mail: nyym.iacstipend@gmail.com

To provide a modest stipend to support students engaged in furthering their studies. This is especially geared toward students pursuing college and/or graduate studies in any course of study. Stipends are also provided for artists pursuing an art project independently (not as part of a college program).

Any age student, but geared toward college students or beyond.

The IAC is a small, volunteer committee with limited resources that meets three times a year to consider stipend applications: early April, late July, mid November. Preference will be given to first-time applicants; those not receiving stipends due to funding limitations will be considered at the following meeting.

$450 or less; depends upon availability of funds - typically $200-250.

Well in advance of IAC meetings in April, July and November (see General Information.)

Complete Application Form; if possible, Documentation of Tribal Enrollment; Name of Academic Advisor to contact for further information; Transcripts and Recommendations are helpful, but not required. We appreciate receiving a letter from the applicant sharing some information about personal goals and telling us how the stipend funds would be used.

PURPOSE

The Gates Millennium Scholars (GMS) Program, funded by a grant from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, was established in 1999 to provide outstanding African American, American Indian/Alaska Native*, Asian Pacific Islander American, and Hispanic American students with an opportunity to complete an undergraduate college education in any discipline area of interest. Continuing Gates Millennium Scholars may request funding for a graduate degree program in one of the following discipline areas: computer science, education, engineering, library science, mathematics, public health or science.

ELIGIBILITY

U.S. Citizen; American-Indian/Alaska Native, High School Senior/High School Graduate or must have your GED; Minimum GPA of 3.3

GENERAL INFORMATION

The increasing diversity of our society reminds us that all of America's citizens must have access to higher education if our nation is to sustain and advance itself as a global, competitive democracy in the new millennium. The future of our economy and quality of life depend upon the preparation of a diverse cadre of leaders who can help build a stronger society. These potential leaders, especially those drawn from groups that have traditionally and historically been denied access to higher education, require the necessary support and opportunities to earn and complete a college education.

Washington, D.C. 20005

e-mail: nasf@saa.org
url: www.saa.org

Together these scholarships support training in archaeological methods, including fieldwork, analytical techniques, and curation.

These scholarships are intended for current students—high school seniors, college undergraduates, and graduate students—and personnel of Tribal or other Native cultural preservation programs. High school students must be currently enrolled as seniors to be eligible. Undergraduates and graduate students must be enrolled in an accredited college or university. Native Americans and Pacific Islanders from the U.S., including U.S. Trust Territories, and Indigenous peoples from Canada are eligible for these scholarships.

These scholarships will support attendance at training programs in archaeological methods offered by accredited colleges or universities. Other types of archaeological methods training programs will be considered on a case by case basis. The scholarship awards may be used to cover tuition and expenses. The cost of tuition for an award recipient will be paid directly to the training program.

Amounts Vary.
