PNC Bank, NA – New York Slate Act Statement

In accordance with Title X of the Higher Education Opportunity Act, PNC works with our loan originations vendor, Campus Door, to ensure that Truth In Lending Act provisions are met for education loans. Disclosures are available upon request. PNC has established reasonable procedures to ensure compliance with New York State Student Lending Accountability, Transparency and Enforcement Act.

PNC has long demonstrated a commitment to integrity and corporate responsibility, and its commitment has only deepened as it has grown into one of the leading financial services companies in the country. PNC's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and ethics-related policies provide important guidance for conducting daily business activities, including complying with laws, managing and reporting conflicts of interest, upholding fair dealing and protecting confidential information. The company does not tolerate unethical or inappropriate behavior and also includes a risk management goal in all employees' performance reviews to ensure that all employees remain focused on and accountable for the ethical and risk implications of their work. Detailed information about PNC's corporate governance policies and procedures and other documents, including the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, can be found at pnc.com/corporategovernance.
