SLATE Statement for SUNY at Fredonia

AY 2025-26

Sallie Mae will continue to follow the reasonable practices it has in place to ensure compliance with the SLATE Act.

Sallie Mae is fully compliant with applicable provisions of the New York SLATE Act.

In addition:

- We will not provide, directly or indirectly, anything of value to any institution of higher education in exchange for any advantage or consideration provided to Sallie Mae related to our higher education loan activity.
- We will not provide, directly or indirectly, anything of more than nominal value during any 12-month period to any officer, trustee, director, employee, or agent of any institution of higher education.
- No employee, representative, or other agent of Sallie Mae will staff an institution of higher education's financial aid office at any time where that employee has contact with students other than for general debt counseling.
- None of our employees, representatives, or other agents will ever identify themselves to students or prospective students of an institution of higher education, or their parents, as an employee, representative, or agent of an institution of higher education.
- We will fully and prominently disclose to potential borrowers any agreement between Sallie Mae and any unaffiliated entity to sell loans Sallie Mae may make to such potential borrowers, if such sale results in Sallie Mae no longer servicing such loan.
