Questions and answers

Q: How and when will I receive my eBill from the university?

A: Fredonia does not send paper billing statements. Instead, you are notified by email and text message (if enrolled) when bills are posted. If you choose to, you can print out the official statement through your secure eBill link. You should also give access to “authorized users” who may be paying bills on your behalf.

If you have pre-selected courses for the upcoming semester, you will receive your first eBill approximately five weeks prior to the start of the semester. The eBill for students who late register for courses will be generated during the first week of the semester. Email notification will be sent to your Fredonia email address and to any email addresses you or your authorized users may have added to your profile. The email will contain a link to access your secure account information. Read your Fredonia email regularly for official correspondence from university offices.

Q: What information is included on the eBill I receive from the university?

A: The eBill will include charges based upon your selected courses and requests for meals, housing and debit accounts made prior to the billing date. The eBill will also list any authorized (actual) financial aid which you may use to defer your payment. Your admissions and room deposits, as well as any other pre-payments you make ahead of time, will also be listed.

Q: When is payment due?

A: The due date will be on your eBill and generally falls on the 15th day of the following month. Remember, a late payment fee of up to $50 will be assessed for payments not received by the due date. Payments can be made using MasterCard®, Visa®, Discover®, American Express® or your bank account information online by accessing your secure eBill/ePayment site.

Q: Is it possible to make partial payments to the university?

A: In order to avoid a late administrative fee, you must pay the entire amount of your university charges that are not covered by authorized financial aid deferrals or advance payments. If your financial aid is not in place by the due date or if you choose to make a partial payment, select one of the Fredonia Installment Payment Plan options. Any changes to your account will automatically adjust your remaining payments. For more information about payment options, please contact the Student Accounts Office at (716) 673-3236 or visit their website at www.fredonia.edu/admin/studentaccounts.

Q: What happens when my account is NOT paid in full by course selection for the following semester?

A: Following SUNY policy, a HOLD is placed on a student’s records preventing course registration for a new term and withholding official transcripts (including diplomas) until all financial obligations have been paid. You can view your hold status via Your Connection. Holds are posted to students’ accounts prior to the start of course registration for the next semester and are removed once direct institutional charges are paid in full.
