WHAT IS CONSIDERED A PUBLIC PERFORMANCE?

The concept of “public performance” is central to copyright and clearly defined by the law. For films, this means that anytime a movie is shown outside of someone’s home, it must be properly licensed.

WHAT THE LAW SAYS

The Federal Copyright Act (Title 17, United States code, Public Law 94-553, 90 Stat. 2541) governs how copyrighted materials, such as movies, may be utilized publicly. The rental, purchase, lending or download of a movie does not grant the right to exhibit it publicly outside the home, unless the screening is properly licensed.

This legal copyright compliance requirement applies to everyone, regardless of whether admission is charged, whether the institution is commercial or non-profit or whether a federal, state or local agency is involved. This means colleges, universities, public schools, public libraries, daycare facilities, parks, recreation departments, summer camps, churches, private clubs, prisons, lodges, businesses and more all must properly license movies to show them publically.

Movie studios own the copyrights to the films they produce, and their agents are the only parties who are authorized to license sites such as colleges and universities. No other group or person has the right to exhibit or license exhibitions of copyrighted movies. Copyrighted movies borrowed from other sources such as public libraries, colleges or personal collections cannot be used legally for showings on any site which is not properly licensed, including colleges or universities.

WHY LICENSING?

Funds from licensing costs consist of royalties, which is the money paid to authors, computer programmers, playwrights, musicians, inventors, movie producers and more out of the proceeds from the sale, performance or use of their work. Nearly everyone participating in a movie production depends on these royalties as payment for any work performed.

If these men and women lose ownership of their work and do not receive revenue, much of which is collected through licensing fees, there would be little incentive for them to continue to invest their time, research and development costs to create new songs, plays, shows and other forms of entertainment. In terms of films, unauthorized use of a movie outside of the home prevents those who worked hard from receiving their just compensation.

The licensing fee for your public performance includes royalties to the entire cast and crew who worked on the movie from start to finish. If you have any doubts about these statements regarding copyright, please consult your copyright attorney to have legal questions answered or verified.

THE “EDUCATION EXEMPTION”

Under the “Education Exemption,” copyrighted movies may be exhibited without a license only if the college is nonprofit and the movie exhibition is:

- An “integral part of a class session” and is of “material assistance to the teaching content.”
- Supervised by a teacher in a classroom.
- Attended only by students enrolled in a registered class of an accredited nonprofit educational institution.

THOSE WHO VIOLATE COPYRIGHT LAW CAN BE PROSECUTED — CONSULT YOUR LEGAL COPYRIGHT ADVISOR OR ATTORNEY

The Motion Picture Association of America (MPAA) and its member companies are dedicated to stopping film and video piracy in all its forms, including unauthorized public performances and illegal downloading. Motion picture companies will go to court to ensure their copyrights are not violated, so avoid the possibility of embarrassing publicity and fines by consulting your legal copyright compliance advisor or attorney if you are uncertain about your responsibilities under copyright law.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Yes! You need a license unless you meet all the educational exemption requirements noted.

DO WE NEED A LICENSE EVEN IF WE DON'T CHARGE ADMISSION?

WHAT IF A DVD SUPPLIER, STREAMING SUPPLIER OR EQUIPMENT PROVIDER SAYS IT IS OKAY TO EXHIBIT RENTED OR PURCHASED MOVIES?

These suppliers rent and sell movies for "Home Use Only" and cannot provide legal permission for use outside the home. You can only obtain licensing directly from a licensor (such as Swank Motion Pictures, Inc.), not from a third party.

Yes! The rental, purchase, lending or download of a movie does not provide the right to exhibit it publicly outside the home, unless the screening is properly licensed. This includes streaming.

I WANT TO SHOW A MOVIE THAT'S BEEN OUT ON DVD FOR MANY YEARS. DO I STILL NEED A LICENSE?

Yes! Copyright pertains to all movies regardless of the year it was produced.

A SMALL GROUP IS HAVING AN INFORMAL GATHERING IN OUR FACILITY. DO WE STILL NEED A LICENSE?
