Video Broadcasting Intern
Rochester Red Wings

I worked with the Rochester Red Wings, which is a minor league baseball team in Rochester, NY. I worked in the production department within the organization. I have gained so much experience, especially with sports broadcasting. I learned all of the skills and programs that I will need in the future (Final Cut, Photoshop, and other various programs).

I got to work with cameras and filmed many baseball games, make a music video, and created a few commercials. I filmed Ted Allen, who was doing a cooking demo in the stadium and met him in person. Not to mention I have met a couple of football players as well (such as Fitzpatrick from the Bills).

The working environment there was a blast! Everyone was nice and helpful, and created an amazing learning experience for me.
