

The license between the State University of New York at Fredonia, hereinafter referred to as the “university,” and the student submitting the online application. Submission of the online application indicates agreement with the policies and procedures outlined in the license as well as the student handbook. This license is for the entire academic year and cannot be cancelled during this period as long as the student is registered, regardless of class standing. All students in their first two years post-high school, regardless of credits earned, are required to live on campus unless their registered permanent address is within a 50 mile radius of the campus. NOTE: There is a fee of $350.00 for APPROVED termination of this license.

For the purpose of stating the understanding between the parties with respect to the charges and responsibilities for a room at the university operated housing facilities for the academic year 2021-2022 for occupancy by the student.

Basic information upon which this license is based as follows:

Deposit Required: $50.00 to be paid upon acceptance or at the time of room selection.

Refund of Deposit: All refunds must be requested in writing to reslife@fredonia.edu by July 1st, or within 30 days of acceptance, whichever is later.

Basic Room Rates*: (all rates are subject to change by action of the Board of Trustees of the State University of New York. The license is for both fall and spring semesters.)

Standard Room (double occupancy)	$3,900 per semester	$7,800 per year
Single Occupancy in a Double Room	$4,300 per semester	$8,600 per year
Kitchen Suite (double occupancy)	$4,100 per semester	$8,200 per year
Kitchen Suite (single occupancy)	$4,500 per semester	$9,000 per year
University Commons Double	$4,100 per semester	$8,200 per year
University Commons Single	$4,500 per semester	$9,000 per year
University Village Townhouses	$4,700 per semester	$9,400 per year

Schedule of Payments: In advance in two equal installments: the first due at the time of registration in August, less deposit; and at January registration. Students will receive additional financial charges or refund if the status of the room changes (i.e. from a double to a single or from a single to a double). If temporary rooms are utilized, they are eliminated when vacancies occur. Any changes in room rates due to a change in status will be done on a per diem basis. Students will receive information concerning billing and payment dates. All payments should be sent directly to the Office of Student Accounts. The deposit should be deducted from the base room rate prior to forwarding payment. The term of occupancy and financial obligation to the university is for the entire 2021-2022 academic year. Cancellation automatically follows graduation, withdrawal, or dismissal.

Refunds: Occupancy of a room for a portion of an academic semester obligates the student to payment for the entire semester, except when withdrawal occurs for reasons beyond a student's control. Rooms are licensed for the 2021-2022 academic year and the University refund policy pertains only to withdrawal from university, not requests to leave university housing. It is understood and agreed that the student accepts and agrees to the following policies and the university will provide a room to the student for the academic year 2021-2022 in residence halls operated by the university subject to the foregoing terms, and subject to the general rules and regulations of the university with respect to its students. (Refer to schedule on website:

<https://www.fredonia.edu/student-life/residence-life/housing-costs> and in the Student Handbook)

Alcohol: Alcoholic beverages may be consumed by individuals of legal age only in their rooms. Alcohol consumption in public areas is forbidden. University policy prohibits possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages on-campus of persons under 21 years of age.

Charge for Single: In the event of vacancies, the university will require the lone student in a room to either find a roommate of their own choosing, to accept another student who is in a similar situation or move into another space to consolidate openings. If space permits and the lone student wishes to remain in the room as the lone occupant, they must pay the single occupancy rate.

Intervisitation: All residence halls are locked on a 24 hour basis. Visitors must be escorted at all times and register at the main desk between 9:00 pm and 7:00 am. Electronic access control is in effect in all residence halls. Guests under the age of 17 are not permitted unless special circumstances exist. Please note that intervisitation will be limited to registered Fredonia students only on May 6th and 7th, 2022.

License: All students living on campus complete and agree to the Housing Application for a space, not a specified room. Students will be released from the license upon withdrawal from the university, marriage, or situations beyond a student's control. Special cases shall be considered upon completion of the appropriate paperwork from the Office of Residence Life. All students in their first two years post-high school, regardless of credits earned, are required to live on campus unless they are commuting from their registered permanent address within a 50 mile radius of the campus.

Damage: Students are held responsible for damage beyond normal wear to the room, public areas of the residence hall and university-provided furnishings. Pre-announced inspections are made during the academic year for the purpose of checking on cleanliness, safety, and the use of university property. Appropriate charges will be assessed based on conditions found at the time of inspections. If damage occurs in public areas, either the individual, if known, or the group in the immediate living area will be charged. Students should be aware that the use of tape, thumbtacks, or removed of screens may incur charges. The Residence Hall Council may be collectively responsible for damage occurring in common areas.

Documents: In addition to this license, students should be aware of other documents which further define their relationships with the university. These include the Rules and Regulations for Maintenance of Public Order on Premises of State-Operated Institutions of the State University of New York, Student Code of Conduct, and residence hall information found in the Student Handbook and On-Campus Living Guide.

Drugs: All students should be aware that, “pursuant to the order of the Chancellor of the SUNY, the illegal use of narcotics and/or dangerous drugs on campus is expressly forbidden.”

Electrical Appliances: Since the residence halls are not wired for large heating appliances (ex: hot plates, small stoves, toaster ovens, space heaters, air conditioners, etc.) they are prohibited and will be removed from student rooms. Multi-armed lamps with plastic shades are prohibited. All appliances must be U.L. approved and should have an automatic shut-off function.

Fire Safety: Tampering with fire safety equipment including in-room smoke & heat detectors is a criminal offense. Persons apprehended may be prosecuted in the criminal court. Caution: candles, incense and other open flames are fire hazards and are prohibited. Damage caused is the responsibility of the student. Failure to cooperate in fire procedures is punishable under criminal law.

Firearms: No student may keep any hunting equipment such as bows and arrows, rifles, shotguns, pistols or other firearms in his/her residence hall room.

Gambling: Gambling of any kind is not permitted in the residence halls.

Guests: Must adhere to guest policy. Parents and guests under age 17 may visit, but cannot stay overnight in student rooms.

Inspection: Duly authorized representatives of the university may enter student rooms for the purpose of inspection or maintenance. If a room is entered for the above mentioned reasons, 24 hours advance notification will be provided. University officials entering for the purpose of search will require that the occupant(s) be present. Suite areas are considered common and are open to inspection at all times. When in the interest of the resident or residents, duly authorized staff will enter the student rooms whether or not occupied.

Keys: Upon registration at the residence hall, each resident is issued a room key and depending on the hall, a mailbox key. The replacement fee is $30 for each key. Any resident who fails to turn in their key when they withdraw from the hall will be billed $30 for each key. Unauthorized possession or use of a master key is considered a serious offense and can result in disciplinary action.

Liability: The university is not liable for loss or damage from any cause to the personal property of the student. Students concerned over personal property or in possession of expensive items are encouraged to obtain liability insurance to cover any losses. The university does not carry insurance on residence or on their property.

Lounge Furniture: University furniture or equipment that is provided in common recreational and lounge areas is for public use and should not be removed from these areas. Any student with such furniture or equipment is subject to disciplinary action.

Musical Instruments: Practice of musical instruments and the use of amplifiers are prohibited in the residence halls. Practice rooms are available in Mason Hall.

Occupancy: At the opening of school in the Fall and after school vacations, the residence hall will be available for occupancy no earlier than 24 hours prior to the student's first university commitment. Prior to vacations, the halls will be closed no later than 9:00 am the day after classes are dismissed. All students, with the exception of those graduating, must vacate their rooms immediately after their last examination. Students graduating will vacate their rooms immediately after Commencement. Students withdrawing from the university during the year must vacate their rooms within 24 hours of the date of withdrawal. Special requests will be considered by the Director of Residence Life. Room rates do not cover room rental during recess periods.

Pets: Animals are not allowed in the residence hall. Fish in tanks less than 10 gallons are the ONLY acceptable pets.

Room Changes: If a student desires any room change, they must receive permission from the Residence Director of their current Residence Hall before any change is made. The university reserves the right to change assignments with consideration given to the student's desire when practical.

Sales: Door to door selling of products, services, tickets, etc. is prohibited by State University of New York regulations.

Withdrawal from the university: The student wishing to withdraw from the university must contact the Academic Advising office to discuss reasons for withdrawal and process official forms. They must also check out of the residence halls by contacting the Residence Director. Housing accommodations are reserved for full-time matriculated students. If a student drops below 12 credit hours, contact must be made with the Office of Residence Life for review of their license.

University Housing Policy: Although the university tries to provide a total experience for the student by maintaining residences, and this experience is recognized as important, a university education does not depend on one remaining a resident. Students may be asked, therefore, to leave the residence halls if they cannot uphold their responsibilities as set down in the Housing License and the Student Code of Conduct. Of the highest priority at all times, is the right of a students to sleep and study in their room. It should be understood that the Director of Residence Life may terminate the housing license of a student for violations of the above conditions or relocate a student to a different location. Students shall not assign or sublet this license to any part or all of the premises. Subletting includes short-term or temporary rental arrangements including, but not limited to, those offered through peer-to-peer accommodation services such as Airbnb, Craigslist, or Couchsurfing. Assigning or subletting may result in discipline and/or license revocation without compensation.

IT IS UNDERSTOOD AND AGREED that the student agrees to and does hereby assume the financial responsibility of the payments of the room rates.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto signed their names, either individually or by authorized agent.
