

Fredonia – Jamestown Community College

Articulation Agreement in Interdisciplinary Studies: International Studies

By this agreement, students who complete an Associate in Arts (AA) Global Studies, AA Liberal Arts and Sciences: Humanities, or AA Liberal Arts and Sciences: Social Science degree at Jamestown Community College (JCC) are guaranteed admission with full junior standing to the Bachelor of Science (BS) Interdisciplinary Studies: International Studies degree program at Fredonia. By completing the AA degree, a minimum of 54 credit hours of coursework listed in Tables 1-2, and at least seven of the ten SUNY General Education (GER) requirements at JCC, such students should be able to complete the BS Interdisciplinary Studies: International Studies degree at Fredonia within four additional full-time semesters, taking 15-18 credits per semester. Fredonia will accept up to 75 total JCC credits from courses listed in Tables 1-2 and courses transferred as additional electives toward fulfillment of the requirements for the BS Interdisciplinary Studies: International Studies.

GPA Criterion: To be guaranteed admission, students must have a minimum cumulative GPA, from all colleges attended, of 2.5.

College Core Curriculum: To graduate with a baccalaureate degree from Fredonia, students must meet the requirements of Fredonia's College Core Curriculum (CCC). The CCC includes all ten SUNY General Education Requirements plus additional coursework stipulated in the Fredonia catalog. To assist JCC students in preparing for their baccalaureate degree at Fredonia, the additional CCC requirements are summarized below:

- 1) Students are required to complete two courses, with two different prefixes, in the social sciences. Students will accomplish this through meeting the requirements for the BS Interdisciplinary Studies: International Studies degree.
- 2) Students are required to complete two courses, with two different prefixes, in the natural sciences.
- 3) The CCC includes an oral communication requirement. This is covered by meeting the SUNY General Education basic communication requirement, which is fulfilled by ENG 1530 at JCC.

Baccalaureate degree requirements are stated in the Fredonia college catalog. Minimum requirements for a Fredonia degree include

- 1) 120 unduplicated credit hours,
- 2) a cumulative quality point average of 2.0 (requirements may vary by major),
- 3) 66 credits from disciplines other than the major discipline, and
- 4) 45 upper level (300 and above) credit hours.

*Additional notes regarding II. Foreign Language.

If a language is offered by Fredonia at the elementary (115-116) level only, then, after completing these two courses, a student has the following options for completing the foreign language requirement, with the approval of the program advisor:

- a. With courses taken during a study-abroad program in a country where that language is spoken;
- b. with intermediate-level language courses taken at an approved institution in the U.S., including courses offered online through the SUNY Learning Network; or
- c. by taking an additional foreign language sequence at the 115-116 level. Students with a demonstrated proficiency in a foreign language must take a minimum of one course (3 credits) at the college level.
